

For Immediate Release

August 23, 2017

Media Contact: Clerk Cindy Berry, 586.649.6440 cberry@chesterfieldtp.org

Arts & Music Festival is cornerstone of Chesterfield's Community Enrichment

Chesterfield's Arts & Music Festival being held this weekend at Brandenburg Park in Chesterfield will serve as the launching pad for the Board of Trustees' new Community Enrichment program.

This Community Enrichment program will feature a variety of services and unique programs available at little or no additional cost to participants. A new community magazine as well as a collection of special events including the Arts & Music Festival will be presented as part of this comprehensive program.

Seminars will be held throughout the year and cover a variety of topics including Women's Self Defense, CPR, Travel Tips & Safety with special bonus session on Disney trip planning and Winterizing Your Home & Garden. These programs are designed and presented in conjunction with Chesterfield Township staff, community partners and other government agencies.

The community magazine will feature information such as a municipal directory, community programming schedules, a township map and community calendars. It will be mailed to all township residents and available at the township offices the week of September 5th.

The Chesterfield Arts and Music Festival will be held on Saturday, August 26th and Sunday, August 27th at Brandenburg Park. Over 60 art vendors booths will be open from 10:00am-6:00pm on Saturday and 10:00am-5:00pm on Sunday. Art offerings include woodworking, jewelry, clothing, paintings and prints as well as items for home and garden. Parking is available at the park with an entrance fee of $5.00 per vehicle and free shuttle service to off-site parking is also available. Food and beverages are allowed and will also be available for purchase.

Musical events and performances begin at noon each day and run until 8:00pm on Saturday and 5:00pm on Sunday. Featured artists include Metro Detroit's premier 80s tribute band, RockStar on Saturday and Kiss tribute band, War Machine on Sunday. Other musical acts include Beatles tribute band Toppermost, Rod Stewart and Elvis tribute artists The Legend Brothers, Losing Six and country music performer Audrey Ray.

Children's activities include arts & crafts projects, musical performance by Rock & Roll Prep School, KID Print child ID program and special appearances by Paw Patrol characters with Chesterfield Police K9 officer ðViperö.

Additional information including the full entertainment schedule can be found at:
www.chesterfieldartsandmusicfestival.org.

For media inquiries only, please contact Clerk Cindy Berry, 586.649.6440 cberry@chesterfieldtp.org

Phone: (586) 949-0400

Daniel J. Acciavatti ó Supervisor ó Cindy Berry ó Clerk ó Paul S. Lafata ó Treasurer
Trustees: Hank Anderson ó Kathy Vosburg ó Brian Scott DeMuyneck ó David Joseph